MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER
DENYING APPLICATION FOR UNCLAIMED DIVIDEND

GE Money Bank as issuer of J.C. Penney credit card, by its attorney in fact J. Armstrong Duffield, filed this application pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2041 et seq., to recover an unpaid dividend owed to J.C. Penney in the sum of $1,163.54. The underlying proof of claim was filed by the chapter 7 trustee on behalf of J.C. Penney, and stated that notices should be sent to American Recovery Systems, Inc., 1699 Wall Street, Suite 300, Mt. Prospect, Illinois 66056. Although the Application alleges that GE Money Bank is the issuer of the J.C. Penney credit card, it fails to demonstrate that the claim relates to a credit card debt, and if it does, that GE Money Bank has the legal right to collect the claim in its own name. Accordingly, the Application is denied.

So ordered.
